What is a Temporary Sign Permit?

A sign is defined as any structure, housing, device, figure, statuary, painting, display, message placard, or other contrivance, or any part thereof, which is designed constructed, created, engineered, intended, or used to advertise, or to provide data or information in the nature of advertising, for any of the following purpose: to designate, identify, or indicate the name of the business, of the owner or occupant of the premises upon which the advertising display is located; or, to advertise the business conducted, services available or rendered, or the goods produced, sold, or available for sale, upon the property where the advertising display is erected.

The following types of signs shall not be installed prior to the issuance of a temporary sign permit:

- Temporary banners for charitable community or civic community events may be permitted as a means of publicizing an event for a limited period of time.

- Subdivision and model home signs

- Temporary commercial and industrial signs to publicize sales, new merchandise, close-outs, grand openings or other similar events
