Youth Commission created their workplan which included three Saturday Teen Events!

This is the promotional flyer that was distributed to the public through social media, schools, and other local businesses.

TEEN EVENTS: TEEN SPORTS DAY!

The Commission launched their Teen Saturday Events with a Teen Sports Day on March 12th!

These event was held at Paradise Park. The Youth Commissioners set-up different sports equipment such as a volleyball, badminton, cornhole, basketball, and pickleball for people to use! It was a great way to introduce different sports to kids. This event had about 50 teens/children attend.

TEEN EVENTS: TEEN MOVIE NIGHT!

Youth Commission members brought the families together by hosting a movie night featuring Disney's Encanto on April 9th! Youth Commissioners gave out popcorn, drinks, and candy to everyone who participated. The Commission also had crafts, photo ops, and prizes! We had over 125 people attend.

TEEN EVENTS: TEEN PARKING LOT PARTY!

A sticker that was developed by our Youth Commissioner Kimberly Balch to give out at this event

The Youth Commission held a Teen Parking Lot Party at the Community Health Fair on May 7th. The party had two large obstacle courses, a balloon twister, and a prize wheel for kids and teens to use. The Commission also had a taco vendor that was giving out free aguas frescas to the first 80 people. In all there were 250 kids/teens go through.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Youth Commissioners assisted the Recreation staff in the presentation of special events this year. We provide volunteer service at Town events including our Holiday Craft Fair/Snow Play Day, our Easter Egg-Stravaganza, and the Grubstakes Parade.
